

Character	Identity	Fate
Nick Carraway	narrator- grows disillusioned with wealth and the careless lifestyle in New York - only character in the novel who truly cares for Gatsby
Jay Gatsby	self-made man who has it all-the American Dream- but has lost something in the process
Daisy Buchanan	love of Jay Gatsby's life- chooses comfort and money over love
Tom Buchanan	old money; brute of a man- treats women like objects
Jordan Baker	beautiful and successful pro golfer who is "incurably dishonest" and a cheat
Myrtle Wilson	mistress of Tom; seeks to rise above her station in life
George Wilson	beaten-down man who loves and adores his wife	